

Rigorous, Robust, Validated, Unambiguous and Aligned

Recipe for success in one 139-character Tweet:

Formulate and validate enterprise strategy with all the necessary and sufficient steps to accelerate purposeful value creation and capture.

Great strategy fully engages and aligns the entire organization in value-creating service of the enterprise purpose, across evolving, emerging and promising time horizons. Great strategy harmonizes outside-in, top-down and bottom-up initiatives and contributions, over time, within ONE business system that has ONE goal.

Every business should have as its ultimate goal: Accelerate purposeful value creation and capture, within the context of its clear and compelling enterprise purpose. Success depends on having a stable and secure operational platform that performs capably and improves continuously. Greatness depends upon the creation and application of distinctive knowledge in game-changing, purpose-serving ways.

One strategic framework enables any business, of any size, in any industry to capably and confidently pursue strategic greatness. That framework transparently documents all of the steps (action/outcome pairs) that must come together and affords each and every employee a personal “line of sight” to the enterprise goal.
